

WHY HE STOOD IN.

Now that the campaign is over in California and Senator Stanford is certain of a re-election, the papers of that State are considering the part that the Stockton Mail played in the fight.

The Mail is a Democratic paper, and is probably the best exponent of the tariff issue on the yonder side of the mountains, but nevertheless it supported Stanford for re-election to the United States Senate.

Some of our California contemporaries cannot understand how a hide bound Democratic paper like the Mail could advocate the Senatorial interests of so thorough a Republican as Stanford. They do not know the character of Editor Colnon. He stands in with his friends and the men whom he likes. He supported Waite (Republican), against Hendricks (Democratic), for Secretary of State, because of his regard for the memory of his late friend, David S. Terry.

This has been his course all along in the Mail. We have known him personally for nearly twenty years, and we can testify to his untiring fidelity to any cause that he espouses. In its support of Stanford during all these years that he has been Senator, the Mail has been as conscientious as it has been consistent. The Senator has not only a very faithful, but a very able advocate in the person of Editor Colnon, for we regard the Stockton Mail as one of the best edited papers in California.

A Good Idea.

If the new Board of Commissioners for the care of the Insane, who go into office on the first of the year, do not take steps toward having the water suit against the Reno Reduction Works dismissed it will be very strange. To keep a senseless and expensive lawsuit running at the State's expense against about the only enterprise on the Truckee River worth mentioning, simply to satisfy the vindictions of a lot of cheap-John politicians, is not what it is cracked up to be. There has been a company ready to take hold of the smelting works and put in lots of money ever since the fire, and all that keeps the works in ruins today is the State's policy to crowd out instead of building up something lasting.—Gazette.

Ex-Reverend Hugh O. Pentecost, editor of the Twentieth Century, does not admire Ward McAllister. He does not like Mr. McAllister's book, either, and he thus pays his respects to the Four Hundred:

The insignia of the Four Hundred are a gridiron, a wine bottle and a box of powdered wax. In that world in which the Four Hundred move it is a taint to work. All these people are non-producers. They have large chutes running from wage earners into their bins, and they are always filling the bins with money, which their agents have collected in interest, rent, etc.

The Reno Gazette claims that under the law passed by the last Legislature defining the question of residence, and claims that Senator Jones is not eligible to a seat in the U. S. Senate. Senator Jones has a residence in Gold Hill, but since the question has been raised it should be taken up and disposed of by the Legislature, so that the Senator can go to Washington with no taint on his right to hold his seat in the Senate of the United States. If the Democrats are in power they might make it a pretext to unseat him unless the Legislature had already settled the question.

A Frenchwoman has become the mother of five children at a birth. Had this interesting occurrence taken place in one of the mushroom towns of the West what a howl for a recount would have followed!—The Philadelphia Press.

THE MANHATTAN

Life Insurance Co.,

OF NEW YORK.

ASSETS - - $12,000,000.

BETTER THAN A

GOVERNMENT BOND.

The MANHATTAN for a limited period will offer the residents of Nevada a Bond Combining Insurance and investment that is in reach of all and which every healthy able-bodied man in the State should possess—for the protection of himself and family.

In explanation read what follows: Suppose a special agent of the U. S. Treasury Department should call on you today and say:

The Government would like to sell you bonds for any amount between $1,000 and $30,000 and if it is not convenient for you to make the investment at once, we will allow you to pay for the bonds in Ten Equal Annual Installments.

And, suppose, in addition to this, the Government, wishing to make this the most desirable investment in the world, should stipulate in the bond, not only to pay them at the end of the term, but in case of your previous death, to pay them to your family and AT THE SAME TIME RELEASE YOUR FAMILY FROM PAYING ANY FURTHER MONEY.

Would you not at once close with such an offer? And yet this is practically what the Manhattan Life Insurance Company, of New York has done and is doing.
